

Call for Papers – ISAAC 2012

We invite you to share your AAC knowledge and experiences at ISAAC's 15th biennial conference:

Highest Performance Communication – Best Life Experience – WOW!

Submissions are invited in the following topic tracks: 1) Clinical and Educational; 2) Research, and 3) PWU AAC* and Families. Presentation formats: 60-minute oral, 20-minute oral and poster. The exciting program will also include plenary sessions and workshops.

Proposals for the ISAAC 2012 biennial conference will be submitted electronically. The following information is needed to complete your proposal submission. Submissions will include complete author information (affiliation, and mailing and electronic contact addresses) and a biographical statement. Each proposal will include its title (15 words maximum), an abstract (150 words), and a proposal summary (1000 word maximum, including up to 10 reference citations). Proposals will be peer reviewed and evaluated on their quality, content, and significance. Only papers that have not been published previously will be accepted. Submissions will be accepted in English only and only via the ISAAC web site at www.ISAAC2012.org.

Important Dates

Paper Submission Deadline: November 1, 2011

Paper Acceptance Confirmed: January 31, 2012

* People Who Use AAC